

Corporate Profile

work.IS

work.IS = “Work In Situ” Work Done in the Right Place — By Design, Not Chance

The name comes from the Latin phrase In Situ, meaning “situated in the right place or position.”

Optimize the workplace — not just bookings.
Reduce Cost & Manage Risk.

Let work.IS auto-optimize the workplace for you on a day-to-day basis.

- Automated space optimization — reduce excess capacity and unused space.
- Policy-driven hybrid scheduling — flexibility for users within organizational control.
- Risk assessed automated scheduling — ensure critical business processes happen on site.
- Rules-driven allocation — not first-come booking, but prioritized access.
- Workspace intelligence — real time visibility into utilization, demand and cost.
- Multi-location management — manage distributed teams and spaces centrally.

work.IS is a workplace operating system — built from real-world challenges and designed for real-world scale.
